Observations...

By the Editor

The Krewe of Chicapoula really did themselves swell for Mardi Gras... the parade exceeded expectations, and was a credit to the efforts of those who participated and to the Central School P-T. A. the guiding spirit of the Krewe... little as you may think... many people remained here for Mardi Gras, who would ordinarily have gone to New Orleans, and then, a number of people from surrounding communities came to Bay St. Louis for the occasion... yes sir, you can't beat the spirit of cooperation... it is more of it, that we need... the St. Joseph Academy Carnival ball was one of the prettiest ever staged... the ladies have always held the spotlight in this gala affair, but this year they were partially eclipsed by the men in their colorful costumes, and too, curiosity as to the identity of the dukes kept the minds of those in attendance on the men instead of the fair ladies... there will be a minstrel for the benefit of the American Red Cross on March 24th... it will be under the direction of Mrs. Nelius Rhodes, who also wrote the script... and by the way, they need a Persian cat for a part in this black face comedy... could you loan them one... the annual drive of the American Red Cross will begin Wednesday March 1st... the quota for Hancock County is $4,122.00... this means about 30 cents for each individual in Hancock County... every person in this area should be happy to contribute a small amount for this great cause... we should remember, quite vividly, the amount distributed in our own County following the hurricane of 1947... and too, remember it is far better to give than to receive... the slot machine injunction petitions pending in the Chancery Court of Hancock County were postponed this week to await the final decision of the Supreme Court on the question of the suggestion of error, if one has been filed... the court extended the time for the filing of the suggestion of error on the motion of the attorneys representing the defendants in the four cases which were decided some time ago... the last day for filing of the suggestion of error, as we understood it, was February 22nd... boys remember... you are only prolonging the funeral oration a few more days... the slot machines are going out permanently.

Bay Hi, Logtown Win Relay Races

Bay High won the relay race in the high school division, and Logtown came in first in the elementary schools' group Wednesday, February 22, Forster Commagere, director announced.

Dedeaux finished second in the mile race, Sellers, third and Kiln, fourth. In the two and a half mile race, Leetown finished second, Wave-

League Of Women Voters Meet; Appoints A Tentative Chairman

"The League of Women Voters is a non-partisan group," Mrs. Errol C. Horner, executive secretary of the women voters said at a meeting of interested women in Hancock county, Tuesday, February 14. The group never gets out and works for any one candidate in particular the speaker added.

75 OR 80 ATTENDED

Approximately seventy-five or eighty women attended the sessions of the meeting held to organize such a league here in Hancock County. There are 720 of these leagues in the United States with a total membership of 89,000. 300 new leagues have been organized since 1944.

Back in 1920 when women were first given the right to vote, some parties thought they would help these new voters to understand what an intelligent participation in elections meant; thus the League of Women Voters got its start. Today they have developed into a more expansive group.

CERTAIN PRINCIPLES

The group had certain principles with which they started, the speaker continued. The group was to work in the educational field of government; they were to be a non-partisan organization; they have never supported or opposed a candidate, and from the beginning they started out as an action group to show women how to think through problems and then take governmental action as well as educational. The league has tried to have a cross-section representative membership.

The prime objective of the League is to acquaint voters with the candidates running for office the secretary said. They send these men questionnaires to fill out and return so that they may have a better understanding of their objectives in seeking office; they give these to the voters.

VOTERS SERVICE

The Voters Service, Mrs. Horner said, is another division of the league which sees that people vote, that their poll tax is paid, and that more qualified people run for office. It gives a better knowledge so that people can vote more intelligently.

"Decisions are being made," Mrs. Horner said, "that will determine the kind of world in which we are going to live ten years from now. Women should take interest in this work because the league discusses national state, and local problems that confront the government."

NECESSARY FOR ORGANIZATION

In order to organize a league of this type it is necessary that the group has fifteen members to start; it is not necessary that they reside within the city limits of Bay St. Louis. A committee must be appointed to plan for preliminary community work before an organizational meeting is held. Mrs. E. C. Samuel was named tentative chairman of this committee which is composed of Mrs. C. C. McDonald, Mrs. J. B. Goldman, Mrs. Wilson Wittleberger, Mrs. Joseph Kern and Mrs. Leigh Carroll.

Mrs. Horner who was guest speaker at the Rotary meeting Wednesday said "We are not promoting women as office holders. We do not think women are quite ready for that unless they have equal qualifications as men."

land third, Gulfside, fourth and Aaron Academy fifth.

BREAK RECORD

Bay High broke the record by running the race in 53 minutes flat, in 1946 Dedeaux set, the record with 60 minutes; the grammar grade students' race was run in the same time as last year's.

Ed. P. Ortte, president of the Board of Supervisors, the sponsors of the races, presented the winners trophies.

NOTABLE FEATURES

Two notable features of the races, Mr. Commagere said, was the spirit shown by Aaron Academy and the Kiln team. Aaron Academy had to enter two girls on their team in order to have enough runners, and Kiln, although they were defeated, continued to run until they reached the finish line.

City, Board, Slot Cases Came Up In Chancery Court

The Chancery Court of Hancock County convened Monday, Morning, with Chancellor D. M. Russell, Sr., presiding. In attendance at the court were Dean J. Jordan, Official Court Reporter, A. C. Mitchell, Clerk, and B. D. Janson, Sheriff. At the opening of the court the docket was called and the usual motions were disposed of. Court was recessed until Wednesday morning, so that all might be able to take in the Mardi Gras festivities.

The Case of State Auditor and the City of Bay St. Louis, against the former Mayor and Commissioners, was to be heard Wednesday morning, on the demurrers filed by the defendants in this cause, was continued when the attorneys representing the Auditor and the City filed a motion to be allowed to amend the bill of complaint.

CONTINUANCE GRANTED

A continuance was also granted in the suit of the State Auditor against the members of the former Board of Supervisors of Hancock County to recover funds which the auditor charges were illegally spent from a state appropriation to the county to improve rural roads. The law, as the auditor charges, made it mandatory on the Board to designate the roads, prior to spending any of the funds. The suit does not charge that the board did not spend the money on the roads in the county.

SLOT CASES CONTINUED

The suits of Leo W. Seal, asking that an injunction issue prohibiting the operation of slot machines in about thirty places of business in Hancock County, were continued since the decision of the Supreme Court involving the same question in four suits, heard at an earlier term of the court has not yet been made final. The defendants in these suits having filed a motion for an extension of time to file a suggestion of error. The suggestion of error had to be filed before February 22nd. A final decision will be had within a fifteen day period from the date of the filing of the suggestion of error.

Spirit Of Mardi Gras Rules In Bay St. Louis

The Krewe of Chicapoula held sway Tuesday in Bay St. Louis when Sherrill Carmouche and Kieth Tonkewere the Royal Rulers for the day.

RECEIVES KEYS TO CITY

The parade, whose theme was "Songs," formed at Bay High and stopped enroute at the County Courthouse where the queen was toasted by his majesty; the keys of the City were presented to the king by Mayor Warren J. Carver.

CAPTAIN CONDUCTS BALL

The parade returned to the Bay High gymnasium where the captain, Sue Smith, conducted the ball. The King and Queen of 1948, Lyndall Heitzmann and Herman Pollion, and the King and Queen of 1949, Temple Perkins and Mike Murphy, entered and took their seats in a reserved box. The dukes entered, and their maids took their places beside them. Maids were Audrey Garcia, Claire Corr, Mildred Adams, Marie Shiyou, Joyce Perniearo, June Colson; Dukes were Larry Smith, Jerry Bienvenu, Clayton Adams, Milford Favre, James Kramer, Billy Burrow. As the pages, John DiMaria and Michael Yates, entered the king was announced. He came in and took his place on the royal stand. The queen and her trainbearers, Sarah Jo Garrett and Beverly Schindler, was met by her dukes and seated on the throne.

Mayor Carver welcomed the court and presented them with their favors after which the orchestra played music for the march and for the first dance by the king and queen.

THE JUDGING

After the masks had marched in review the judges, Mrs. William Bartram, Mrs. Eleanor Sabath and Rev. C. R. Johnson, gave their decision, which was based on originality of the entry, how well the song title was carried out, and the appearance of the float. "Don't Sit Under the Apple Tree," entered by the first-second and third grades of Bay Central school, won first prize; Wave-land school's float, "The Merry-Go-Round Broke Down," second; business and club winners were the teen-age club entry, "Song of the Islands," won first place, and the Blaize entry, "Somebody Nobody Loves," with little boys dressed as Devils on the float. In the bicyclists class the prize was divided between "Sad-sachs" and "Monkey," whose real identities are unknown.

MISSISSIPPI HOUSE PASSES BILL WHICH VALIDATES ACTIONS OF HANCOCK BOARD

Attorney General Rules No Recount

The City Election Commissioners met Thursday morning, February 23rd, at the City Hall, for the purpose of recounting the votes in the recall election of Mayor Warren J. Carver, having granted the petition of Charles Traub, Sr.; Emile Adam, Sr.; Daniel J. Ziegler and John K. Edwards, requesting a recount, at a former meeting.

NO RECOUNT

At the Thursday morning meeting the Election Commissioners had an opinion from the Attorney General of the State of Mississippi holding that the Commissioners had no authority to recount the ballots cast in the election once the returns had been canvassed.

The report of the election had been certified by the election commissioners to the Commission Council February 13th, 1950.

THE QUEEN

Edouard C. Carriere escorted Miss diBenedetto to the stage and presented her to the king, who was attired in black and white costume. She wore a dress of white Chantilly lace over silver lame cloth, fashioned with a round neck and trimmed in sequins and beads. Her mantle was of Aquamarine velvet bordered with white ermine and trimmed with multi-colored and trimmed with flowers. The mantle was finished with a Medici collar of rhinestones, her crown and sceptre were of rhinestones. She carried pink roses and white orchids. Her trainbearers, Lynette Kergosien and Helen Wolfe, wore floor length dresses of white with appliqued flowers trimmed in sequins.

Kathy Gilbert and Mikiel Barry, students of St. Joseph Academy, danced before the king and queen, and the court.

KING ENTERTAINS

Following the tableau the king entertained the court and a large number of friends at a supper at the Bay-Waveland Yacht Club.

The following comprised the court: maids were Mesdames Edmond F. Fahy, Jr., Scott T. Assenheimer, Samuel Patrick Murphy, Walter J. Gex, Hardin H. Shattuck, Dan M. Russell, G. P. Jones, J. Richard Shadoin, L. A. Rogers, Joseph S. Blanchard, William Ross, Picaire, Ellis Guillory, Rene deMontuzin, Jr., Robert L. Camors, J. O. Normand, J. A. Weinfurter, Elizabeth G. Crasto, Robert Lee Hamilton, M. A. Gilmore, Horace L. Kergosien, Ray H. Stieffel, Alden L. Mauffray, John Joyce, John L. Griffin; Dukes were Messrs. Joseph S. Blanchard, Robert L. Camors, Octave W. Delph, Rene de Montuzin, Jr., Lucien M. Gex, Walter J. Gex, M. A. Gilmore, Ellis Guillory, Robert Lee Hamilton, John Joyce, Horace L. Kergosien, Alden Mauffray, Samuel Patrick Murphy, James O. Normand, William Ross, Picaire, L. A. Rogers, Dan M. Russell, J. Richard Shadoin, Hardin H. Shattuck, Ray H. Stieffel, J. A. Weinfurter, Dr. B. L. Ramsey, Dr. Emmett Irwin and Dr. G. P. Jones.

St. Stanislaus band furnished music for the opening of the ball and for dancing; Kramer's dance orchestra furnished music for dancing after the King's supper at the yacht club.

CHAIRMEN

Committee chairmen who made the ball possible were Dr. J. A. Evans, all over chairman; E. C. Carrere, chairman of the ball; Mrs. W. A. Prewitt and Dr. J. L. Griffin, chairmen of the court; Mrs. Gertrude Saucier, chairman of decorations; Mrs. H. A. Eldredge, flowers; Mrs. Elizabeth Becker, cloak room; Mrs. George Anderson, tickets; Dan M. Russell, music; lighting, E. M. Brignac; George Stevenson, photography; Mayor W. J. Carver, door.

The Mississippi House of Representatives on last Friday passed a local and private bill, introduced by Representative Francis Lee of Hancock County, to validate the acts of the Board of Supervisors of Hancock County in expending the sum of $53,000, which Hancock County received from the State of Mississippi as its share of a state appropriation of $5,000,000.00 authorized by the Legislature of 1946.

Under the bill, making the appropriation, a clause provided that it was mandatory for the Board of Supervisors to designate the road on which the sum granted was to be spent prior to the spending of any of these funds.

SUIT PENDING

A suit is pending in the Chancery Court of Hancock County, filed by the State Auditor, challenging the right of the Board in spending $37,187.00 of these funds prior to the time that an order was placed on the minutes specifying the roads which were to be improved, and asking that the members of the former Board, Charles B. Murphy, John B. Wheat, Johnson S. Shaw, Lander H. Necaise and Ed. P. Ortte, be made to repay said amount to the county and to pay interest thereon in the sum of $4964.58.

Under the bill, which was held for reconsideration last Friday, after its passage, this action would be validated.

HOUSE BILL PASSES

On Tuesday morning the House took up the bill for reconsideration as it was passed on Friday, and by a vote of 80 to 23 finally passed it and sent it on to the senate for consideration.

The motion to have the bill removed from the reconsideration list and sent to the senate was made by Representative George Grubbs of Simpson County.

March 30, 31 and April 1 Set For Theatre Play

The Little Theatre will present their first play of the 1950 season, "Strange Bedfellows," March 30, 31, and April 1 instead of the dates previously scheduled. This is being done so as not to conflict with the Red Cross minstrel to be held March 24.

The active membership of the Theatre is urgently called upon to try out for the plays, Mrs. Oliver L. Raaford, president said. She added that the group wants and needs new talent. "Whether you think you can act or not, and if you are talented, please come out and give it a try."

In The Interest Of Hancock County...

Leo W. Seal, President of the Hancock County Bank is shown presenting a check to Jack L. Hale of the Forestry Equipment Company of Pritchard, Ala., as payment for a tree planter, purchased by the Hancock Bank, and presented to Howard Simmons, County Agent of Hancock County. The tree planter is already in operation. Trees are being planted at the Rocky Hill Tower.

It is to be used for tree planting by 4-H Club members and adults who are planting under 5000 trees. All who will plant over 5000 trees will use the larger tree planter which was purchased by the Board of Supervisors.

The machine pictured above planted 5000 trees on an old abandoned field in four hours and fifteen minutes.

HOW ABOUT YOU?

Would you really like to help a worthy cause? Now is the time to contribute to the annual Red Cross Fund Campaign drive which begins March 1 and ends March 31.

Every penny and dime can help some person in need; it might even help you some day when you are without shelter, food, clothing or other necessities. The Red Cross might even help you get a place to stay if, by some unforeseen accident, you are left homeless.

The Red Cross this year reminds us that "All May Help" in the organization's wide-spread humanitarian work. That slogan is the theme of the 1950 fund campaign. It has a personal meaning to every American, and particularly to those in Hancock County who were helped by money contributed by other citizens throughout the United States. Yes, in the time of the hurricane when many of us were in need, the Red Cross came along and offered their help. Now that the Red Cross is once again coming along and asking the help of others, will you be able to turn your head and say no. Think of how much this organization has done for you, and then dig deep and GIVE.

Each day thousands of those who want to help and thousands of those who need help are brought together through the Red Cross for the most heartwarming "Swap" in mankind's history. It is a personal exchange, this barter of the impulse to aid for the pain, the suffering, the worry, the life of a fellow man in distress. And it is a swap with wide appeal. Last year 1,450,000 Red Cross volunteers proved that with tens of millions of hours of service.

We are lucky here in Hancock County and throughout America that the balance between those in need and those ready to meet that need is so favorable. We are generous people. Our hearts are warm, our hands ready to help. Let us make sure that the balance never shifts, that no cry for aid ever goes unheard.

One sure way of guaranteeing that the work of mercy will never end is to support your Red Cross. Support it in every way that you can—with your time, your energy, your money. All are needed, and each one of us can contribute some part of the total.

That is what the Red Cross means when it says that "All May Help."

During this 1950 campaign let's meet the Red Cross quota for Hancock County, which is $4,122, and show that we are willing to help repay some of the benefits that we have gotten through this group.

"ALL MAY HELP." WILL YOU?

Opportunity For Hancock County

By J. ROLAND WESTON

Within the last week there have been pictures and front page articles in the New Orleans States and Times-Picayune papers about the news-print mill that has recently gone into production at Childersburg, Alabama. This is the second paper mill to make newsprint out of Southern Pines. There have also been articles in other papers, magazines and periodicals about this same mill. The New Orleans papers that carried the front page story further said that the issue containing the article was printed on some of the paper made at the Childersburg mill.

HANCOCK COUNTY'S CHANCE

The Rotary Club, Chamber of Commerce and many interested individuals of this town for the last five years have been trying to interest capital and industry in coming into this County. But here is an opportunity that has been lying under our feet for years. Yet, with the exception of a few individuals, little has been done to foster this possibility.

After taking into consideration all the land in farms, improved pastures, salt marsh, municipalities and villages there remains over 275,000 acres of land in Hancock County that can and should grow trees. Some of it is growing them but there are too many acres with young trees upon them which are annually devastated by fire. There are other acres already barren upon which repeated fires give the trees no chance to get started growing.

MOST FIRES WITHIN 4 MILES

From the appearance of things there have been more forest fires within four miles of the Chamber of Commerce and the Court House than in all the rest of the County put together. A great majority of these fires were within what may be called the suburbs of Bay St. Louis and Waveland, on small holdings and acreage. It does not properly come under the jurisdiction of the Mississippi State Forestry Service to combat the fires, though they have sent their men and equipment to fight some, I have failed to see any landowners even when living upon the land make any effort to combat them. Of course probably each owner says "I have only a few acres and it doesn't make any difference."

But many small pieces of land with a few acres each soon run into hundreds of thousands of acres. I estimate that for each acre burned the property owner loses may be $5.00, $10.00 or $15.00. But if this wood or young trees that would soon grow into pulpwood, could be manufactured here then the loss to the community, County and State would be $150 to $200 per acre.

Wrestling Is an Honest Sport, But Love Is a Different Story

By BILLY ROSE

The other night at Lindy's, I was introduced to a Popocatepetl of a man named Ezaklios Papanokiyulikas, the Greek wrestler—better known to the toe-hold set as the Hooded Cobra.

"You inressid in wrestling?" the mash-and-maul artist asked pleasantly.

"Not particularly," I said. "I hear tell the business is full of crooks."

"Is wrong," said the Cobra. "In United Schnapes, wrestling is mos' honest sport what can be. Why? Because no wan bet. Is lak betting on feenish of musical comedy show."

"What makes you think people don't bet on musical comedy shows?" I said. "But never mind, go on."

"Only place wrestling is crooked sometime in Sout' America," the Cobra continued.

"Erinstance, Ecuador, where three months ago I ween plenny money by losing."

"I am amaze," I said.

"Is funny story," said Ezaklios. "Day before I wrastle Aloicio Macombo, champ of Quito, Senor Ramon, matchmaker, walk een my hotel room. Ramon is beeg shot in Ecuador."

"Put on show twanny, twanny-five minoot," he says. "Then Aloicio weel take fall for you. Mak it bearg hug an' body press."

"I cannot believe ears. I say: 'You want me to beat champ?'"

"He say: 'That is only way you gat return match. Mak sure no mistake. I bet plenny for you to win.'"

"NIGHT OF MATCH, when I walk down aisle, crowd have bottles, is boo, want kill me. When Aloicio comes in, they chuck flowers an' cheer."

"Everybody is bet on champ—poor, rich, Spaneesh, Indians—an' these mak me sad. I am honest man an' do not like cheatin' poor, ignorant peoples. So I decide to be fair and lose—I even bet all I got on Aloicio."

"Well, at first is very good match. For twanny minoot us poosib, mak noises an' stick fingers in eyes. An' then Aloicio says, 'Is too hot to wrastle more. I take fall soon.'"

"I am smart an' say nothing, an' minute later I fall on back with Aloicio on top. But Aloicio is smart, too. 'Oh, no,' he says, an' begins to fight dirty. An' before referee can count tree, he twist my arm round his head so I got headlock. Then he geeve jerk, mak like he trip over my leg, an' fall on hees head. Only he fall harder than he think an' gats very deery."

"Queek, I jump on heem, making beeg tangle weeth arms and legs—no one can tell who got who. Then I feenish up on my back. Referee counts tree, announces Aloicio ween, an' crowd go crazy."

"WASN'T SENOR Ramon sore?" I asked.

"I no wait for Ramon," explained the Cobra. "I slip out of the arena, then out of town, then out of Ecuador."

Just then, a good-looking woman pushed her way through Mr. Lindy's revolving door, spotted the wrestler at my table, and began jabbering away at him in Spanish.

"Wait for me in car, babies," Ezaklios said, affectionately. "I am weeth you in minoot."

"Who's the lady?" I asked, when we were alone again.

"Wife of Senor Ramon," said the Cobra. "When she got final divorce, she become Meesus Papanokiyulikas."

"I thought you said wrestling was an honest sport," I said.

"Wrastling, yes," said Ezaklios. "Love, my frien' of course, is horse of different collar."

KEEP FIRES OFF

All that is necessary to do to grow this timber is to keep fires off the land. It helps to plant trees, millions of which could be planted in this County; but if fire was not kept off the land and prevented, it would be a waste of time and money. In most places trees will grow, if fires are just kept off the land.

FIRES SET MALICIOUSLY

We know that real accidental fires are less than 5% of the total. Up to now it has been practically impossible to secure a conviction for fires maliciously set in the woods, even though the evidence was, without a shadow of a doubt there as to the offender. The Mississippi State Forestry Service has been working under a handicap with these conditions prevailing. It is useless for them to swear out a warrant for one burning the woods unless a conviction can be almost certain. The Chamber of Commerce, Rotary Club and all others can be of invaluable assistance by lending their strength and influence and in lending their support to the efforts of the Mississippi State Forestry Service and those who wish to protect the forests, fish and game.

INDUSTRY MEANS PROGRESS

If a paper mill like the Childersburg plant could be built in Hancock County, it would result in tripling the assessed valuation of the County on the Tax Assessment rolls. This would mean better schools, roads, bridges, and a higher standard of living for all. It would mean increased income for the farmers, stores, garages, etc. It would mean that approximately 2,000 cars of freight would be sent out over the L & N Railroad, if all products of the mill were shipped by rail.

COULD EASILY SUPPLY MILL

A mill like the Childersburg plant would require about 200,000 cords of wood per year, to make 90,000 tons of newsprint. The forest land in Hancock County, if it all was growing trees, could easily grow 300,000 cords per year. Or one and a half times as much as needed to operate such a paper mill.

This can be done. It will not be easy and it will take time. Trees do not grow in a day. But if we think of our future and that of our children it is a goal well worth working for. It is entirely practical and possible to grow timber in 15 years to make it worth while for the paper industry to erect a plant, like that at Childersburg, here. In fact, if all fires could be kept out of the woods in this County, I would guarantee that there would be enough pulpwood for such a mill in 15 years.

AVAILABILITY OF NON-FAT DRY MILK SOLIDS AND DRIED EGGS

Government held stocks of two more commodities—dried eggs and non-fat dry milk solids—are now available free to all Mississippi school lunch rooms, welfare agencies, and eleemosynary institutions which will pay transportation charges from the point of storage, it was revealed today.

A similar donation offer was announced last month on Irish potatoes. In announcing the offer, T. M. Patterson, State Executive Officer of the Production and Marketing Administration, said the dried eggs and dry milk, now held by the Commodity Credit Corporation, were bought by the U. S. Department of Agriculture as a price measure. Present available stocks include about 73 million pounds of dried eggs and 169 million pounds of non-fat dry milk. Large quantities, he stated, are stored in nearby states.

Patterson said the commodities may be obtained by the Bureau of Indian Affairs and its agencies, as well as by school lunch rooms, both public welfare agencies and public eleemosynary institutions. Recipients, he said, must meet somewhat the same stipulations as apply in the case of Irish potatoes. They must agree, he said, (1) to use them for food purposes only, (2) not to reduce their normal food expenditures, and (3) not to sell or trade them.

Local welfare agencies, Patterson said, should direct requests for these commodities to their own state welfare agency. Actual distribution will be handled by Ben F. Middleton, of the State Department of Education, for schools only, and by W. D. Hilton, of the State Board of Trustees of Mental Institutions, for institutions and welfare agencies.

WHAT ACP IS DOING

2,700,000 ACP farms in 1949—Soil and water conservation practices, adapted to local conditions and needs were carried out on approximately 2,900,000 farms in the United States and Insular Territories under the 1949 ACP.

Since 1936, farmers cooperating in the ACP have constructed terraces on 17 million acres of land; constructed 900 thousand dams for livestock water, erosion control and for irrigation; used 240 million acres of green manure and cover crops to restore humus and organic matter to the soil; seeded 45 million acres of rangeland and pasture land to grass and legumes; applied 235 million tons of lime to improve the growing conditions for grass and legume crops; applied 20 million tons of phosphate to make possible the establishment and adequate growth of soil conserving

Miss Mary di Benedetto Entertains At Queen's Tea

Miss Mary diBenedetto entertained at the Queen's tea Sunday afternoon at Hotel Reed from 4 to 6.

The party was given in the Sun Room of Hotel Reed. Miss diBenedetto was standing with her mother and father before the large fireplace, the mantle of which was banked in white roses; on either side of the open fireplace were baskets filled with gladioli.

She wore a new model Navy blue taffeta made with a tight bodice; the full skirt was fashioned with alternate circular bands of taffeta and Navy blue net. She wore a pin and earrings of turquoise and rhinestones, the gift from the King, and a wrist corsage of pink gardenias.

The table from which the guests served themselves was covered with an oblong container holding an arrangement of spring flowers in the Carnival colors.

Mc Caleb - Toal Wedding Held

MR. AND MRS. J. T. MCCALEB, JR.

Miss Jewel Jacqueline Toal, daughter of Mrs. Alvin J. Weinberg and Mr. John Thomas McCaleb, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. McCaleb of this city, were married Saturday, February 11 at 2 o'clock in the afternoon at Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church; Rev. Father Edward Desmond officiated.

Proceeding and during the ceremony Professor John Hammersbach played musical music. Mrs. Theodore Thomas sang Schubert's Ave Maria.

THE BRIDE

The bride, given in marriage by her stepfather, Mr. Alvin J. Weinberg, wore a wedding dress of white slipper satin fashioned with a tight bodice which came to a point in front and was rounded in the back. The bodice was finished with small covered buttons and loops of satin ribbon down the front; the long sleeves which came to a point over the hand, were finished with the covered buttons. The neck was finished with a round imported lace collar trimmed in seed pearls. Her veil of illusion was held in place by a halo of seed pearls, orange blossoms and tulle. She carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations centered with a white purple throned orchid, her mother's Crystal Rosary and a lace handkerchief, a gift of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Camille Webster.

MAID OF HONOR

She had as her maid of honor Miss Ada Mitchell, a former classmate, who wore a dress of peach net over peach satin fashioned with a tight bodice and a satin stole worn around the drop shoulder. The net skirt was full and a crushed satin belt, with bustle effect bow in the back, finished the dress. In her hair was an arrangement of blue carnations with peach ribbon and net. She carried a basket bouquet of blue carnations tied with peach net and peach ribbon.

BRIDESMAID

Her bridesmaid was the bridegroom's sister, Miss Cecil McCaleb, who wore blue net over blue satin fashioned the same as the Maid of honor's. Her headpiece was of peach carnations, with blue ribbon and net and she carried a basket of peach carnations tied with blue net and blue ribbon.

Mr. McCaleb had as his best man Peter Benvenuti; Clement Bontemps was groomsmen.

THE RECEPTION

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Knights of Columbus Hall on Main street where Mrs. Weinberg and Mrs. McCaleb were receiving with the bridal party. The former wore a dress of Navy blue and white sheer and a shoulder corsage of pink carnations; Mrs. McCaleb wore black crepe and a white carnation shoulder corsage.

The table, which held the four-tiered wedding cake, was covered with a white lace cloth and decorated with white Camellias and fern. The cake, which was topped with a miniature bride and groom standing under a bell of lilies of the valley, was surrounded with white Camellias.

For traveling the bride wore a Navy-blue suit with Navy and white accessories. She wore a white carnation corsage.

Mrs. W. L. Bourgeois served the cake and Mrs. Elizabeth Becker presided at the punch bowl. Miss McCaleb pulled the ring.

THE BRIDE AND GROOM

The bride is a graduate of Bay High and served in the Marine Corps in World War II. She holds a position as secretary at Bay High school. The bridegroom is a graduate of St. Stanislaus and was in the marine corps in World War II. He is associated with Benvenuti Plumbing Company.

They are at home at 410 Carroll avenue. Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Adolph St. Amant, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Santama, Jr., Mrs. Miriam Luxich and son Oswald of Blount, Mrs. John Tooley and daughter, Vera, Mrs. Frank Vardin, Mrs. E. Landry of New Orleans; Mr. and Mrs. James St. Pierre, Mrs. Marie St. Pierre of Algiers, La., and Mrs. J. T. Leddy of Hattiesburg.

Freshmen Present Play In Chapel

By the Junior-Senior English Class

The student body enjoyed the one-act play, "Lo, The Gaunt Wolf," presented by the freshmen in chapel, Monday, Feb. 20, under the direction of Mrs. Mary Favre, their sponsor.

Joe Thrash, as the young sharecropper, Davy Timbrook, was realistic; Clara Lee played the part of Lemmie Timbrook, Davy's half-witted nephew; Guy Nell Lee was Lemmie's mother, and Evelyn Mitchell acted as Granny Timbrook, Davy's crippled old grandmother. Margaret Bennett had the part of Judy Horner, Davy's fickle sweetheart. Donald Necaise was the "hard-boiled" plantation owner, Flint Andrews, whose son, Charlie Andrews, was played by Gaston Ory, Jr. Mary Louise Necaise was Windy Pettifer, a sharecropper, and his daughter, Nance Pettifer was played by Beverly Jean Mauffray. Ernest Lee and Prather Necaise acted the parts of Ed Weston and Jim Lawson, friends of the Andrews family.

The song, "The Merry-Go-Round Waltz" and "Bibbi-da-bobbi-da-bo" were sung by the ninth grade, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. E. E. Smith.

FORMER RESIDENT OF KILN ACCIDENTALLY SHOT

Hollis A. Hart, who spent most of his childhood in Kiln, was accidentally shot in Marion, S. C., Friday, February 17.

While in a grocery store in Marion, Mr. Hart examined a 22 rifle which belonged to a 13 year old boy standing by him at the counter. He handed the rifle back to the boy and jokingly told him to "Pull the trigger." The child automatically obeyed, thus discharging the bullet which lodged in Mr. Hart's skull.

Mr. Hart, now 22 years old, lives in Marion, S. C., with his wife and one child.

KILN TRIUMPHS IN FINALS

In the finals of the Pass Christian Invitational Tournament, Friday night, February 17, 1950, Kiln grammar school boys' basketball team played DeLisle and breezed over them by 11 points, the score was 27-38.

The Kiln grammar school teams played St. John's Tuesday night Feb. 14. Kiln boys and St. John's girls were the victors in these games.

Thursday February 16, Kiln and Dedeaux met in the Semi-Finals with Kiln boys taking winning honors by capturing a 32-25 decision.

As they returned Friday night, Kiln boys set to keep their record clean with no defeats so far, they took on DeLisle in the finals. Playing hard and with much confidence they had little trouble in downing DeLisle 38-27.

So the baby Wildcats are still undefeated this season and will enter the county tournament this week.

KILN GIRLS MAKE DESPERATE ATTEMPT IN REGIONAL TOURNAMENT

Although Kiln girls were defeated by Lyman tournament champs, they put up a good fight.

Thursday night February 16, Kiln played Industrial in a close game and Kiln lassies managed to come out on top 45-40.

Kiln girls took the floor against

Lyman Friday night. The badly crippled Wildcat lassies put up a gallant fight before accepting defeat, but when the game ended Lyman was out in front 3 points, 42-39.

Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Moran and children from Gulfport visited Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Moran last week end. Also visiting in the home of the Morans was their daughter, Mrs. Oida Grimes from Gulfport.

FENTON

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Lizana and children, Lois, Marie, Howard, Louise, Linda and Ronnie, from White Cypress visited Mr. and Mrs. Louis R. Lizana and family last week end.

Mrs. Pat Garcia and children, James, R. J., and Dorothea from Bay St. Louis visited Mr. and Mrs. Purvis Deschamp and family and also Mrs. Van Deschamp and children.

Misses Vivian and Earline Deschamp spent last week end in Gulfport with relatives.

LEETOWN

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Lee, of Leetown community, announce the marriage of their daughter, Delores, to Clyde Reeves of Polkville, Miss.

The wedding ceremony was performed in the home of the bride Monday evening, February 20, 1950, by Elder J. E. Moore, pastor of Lee's Chapel No. 2, with only the following members of the family and close friends present: Mr. and Mrs. Willie Lee, mother and father of the bride, Daylene, Viron, Freeman and Richard, brothers and sister of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl McNiece, Mrs. Louis Lee, and John McNiece.

Shortly after the ceremony, the bride and groom left for Polkville, where they will make their home. Delores was a member of the Sophomore class of Kiln High school.

Exhibits German Midget Submarine In Bay St. Louis On March 2nd

Captured two-ton midget U-boat, inspected by British officers in Pacific theater at Kiel. Delivered in sections, the U-boat was assembled here. Called the Seehund, midget is 29 feet long and is powered by Diesel engine and electric motor. Speed on surface is 8 knots; submerged, 3 to 4 knots. It has two torpedoes.

NATIONAL TOUR
NAVY CLUB of U.S.A.

A German Midget submarine will be exhibited in Bay St. Louis Thursday March 2. The exhibit, mounted on a large trailer, is sponsored by the Navy Club of the U. S. A. The exhibition will be on display on North Beach near Main street, between the hours of 10:00 a. m. and 10:00 p. m. There is no admission charge.

"SEEHUND" GERMAN NAME

The Midget Submarine was known in Germany as the "SEEHUND," and was one of the secret weapons the Nazis developed in their futile efforts to conquer the world. The Seehund is 29 feet long, and weighs 21 tons, carrying two full sized torpedoes, each being 22 feet long. The submarine, having a speed of 8 knots on the surface, and 4 knots submerged, was operated by two men.

ONLY 2 IN EXISTENCE

This is the only one in this country and as far as known there are only two left in the world, all the rest having been destroyed by the Germans so that the existence of this secret weapon would not be known. This U Boat is mounted on the original trailer used by the Germans to transport the submarine overland. The submarine was launched from this same trailer, now in use, along with others of the same type, and kind, at desired location for attack upon allied ships. They always attacked in a pack; from this method came the well known expression of "being attacked by a WOLF PACK."

DECIDING FACTOR IN WAR

The Germans gambled with this type submarine which was most vital in their war plans. The failure of the submarine campaign, which was due to effective counter measures by the allies, was one of the deciding factors in the outcome of the war.

The German submarine is under test observation and study by the Navy Department.

The exhibit is being toured nationally by the Navy Club of the U. S. A., a veteran's organization incorporated by an Act of Congress in 1949. The Navy Club of U. S. A., the only exclusive national organization of Naval veterans is a non-profit organization, dedicated to the welfare and rehabilitation of all U. S. Naval personnel.

Air Force Offers Various Careers

More than 35 types of careers in aviation are open to young men and women who volunteer and are accepted for the United States Air Force. T. Sgt. D. R. Amos said today. A young person can become highly skilled in technical fields such as aircraft maintenance, electronics, or aerial photography, explained Sgt. Amos. He may qualify for administrative fields such as management, personnel, or air transport.

PLACED IN SUITABLE JOBS

Under a new vocational guidance program, the Air Force is striving to place every one of its members in the type of job for which he is best fitted. That is the major reason why all enlistments in the Air Force are unassigned. No decisions are made as to an individual assignment until he has taken aptitude tests and discussed his abilities and preferences with a skilled vocational counselor.

A young man or woman accepted by the U. S. Air Force receives this vocational guidance during his first 14 weeks of indoctrination training. On the basis of the aptitude tests and interviews, the young man begins his career.

PLANS FOR COUNSELOR AT BASE

One important career field in the Air Force, for example, is aircraft maintenance. It involves such work as maintenance of all types of aircraft engines, and engine controls. Youths pursuing such a career have an opportunity to attend schools where they specialize in maintenance of the latest jet-propelled type aircraft.

The Air Force, Sgt. Amos added, plans to place vocational guidance counselors at all bases. It is their responsibility to see that recruits reporting to their base are given appropriate assignments in their career field. The entire career program, the officer said, is carefully planned so as to encourage and train each individual for better jobs and for promotions.

During February, he said, the Air Force will accept approximately 8 recruits from this locality. Information concerning U. S. Air Force Careers may be obtained at Courthouse, Bay St. Louis on Tuesdays.

The Red Cross program of services to veterans of all wars and peacetime service is a continuation of the organization's charter mandate to serve the Armed Forces.

Rolls Never Go Begging If Fixed This Way

By MISS MADGE ALLRED

Hot rolls will never go begging if you prepare them the slow-bake way. You can keep them in the refrigerator for 2 weeks or in the freezing unit for several months.

KEEP FOR DAYS

If neither the refrigerator nor freezing facilities are available, you can keep them for days just as you would any other fresh loaf bread.

Here's a recipe you will like to use:

1. Heat to boiling $\frac{1}{4}$ cup sugar, $\frac{1}{4}$ cup shortening and 2 cups sweet milk. Double boiler will prevent scorching or boiling over.
2. Soften 1 cake compressed yeast in $\frac{1}{4}$ cup lukewarm water.
3. Allow milk to cool to room temperature or lukewarm to inside of wrist. Pour into mixing bowl.
4. Add yeast and 4 cups sifted flour. The batter should be thin. Beat well.
5. Let rise in warm place (80 to 85 degrees F.) for 2 hours, or until batter is double in bulk.
6. Sift together $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon baking powder, $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon soda, 3 teaspoons salt, 2 cups flour.
7. Add this to dough and knead in additional flour. About 2 cups flour will be required. Knead until dough leaves bowl.

8. Shape dough into clover leaf or pan rolls. Use the muffin tins and make the clover leaf rolls. They will brown nicely all around and are easy to handle. However, rolls may be baked in square cake pans or suitable containers. You may "pinch" them out or cut, whichever is the easier method.

9. Place rolls in greased pans, rub surface with melted fat and set in a warm place. The right temperature for rising is 80 to 85 degrees F. Let rolls rise until double in size.

10. Bake for 30 minutes at 275 degrees F. Remove from the oven when the rolls are done but not brown.

11. Turn out on racks to cool. Be sure the rolls are really cool before wrapping.

12. Use heavy wax paper or other suitable material for wrapping. If you expect to freeze them, use regular freeze paper or cartons.

13. Store in refrigerator, freezing unit or a cool place.

14. When ready to serve spread melted butter or other fat over top of rolls and place in a 450 degree F. oven for 7 minutes, or until brown.

Bake plenty of rolls! Everybody will want seconds.

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD FOR J. SUTTON TUESDAY

Funeral services were held Tuesday, February 21 for John W. Sutton, Sr., who died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Louis F. Maumus, on South Beach, Monday, February 20 at 5:53 p. m. following a long illness.

Religious services were held at the Fahey Funeral Home at 12:45 p. m. and at Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic church with Father Edward P. Desmond officiating. Father John Bryan accompanied the body to New Orleans where it was taken for interment in the Hope Mausoleum at 3 p. m.

Acting as pallbearers were: Horace L. Kergosien, Arthur Chapman, Dennis Burge, M. J. Artigues, Albert Heitzman, Jr., Sam Piazza.

Mr. Sutton was a retired railroad man, and since his retirement made his home with his daughters spending much of his time here with Dr. and Mrs. Maumus.

Surviving him, other than Mrs. Maumus, are two daughters, Mrs. Isabelle Sutton Carman of Catlin, Illinois; Mrs. Althea Sutton Granberry, and a son John W. Sutton, Baton Rouge, La.

You help the men in service when you give to the American Red Cross, through field workers stationed with troops wherever they may be in this country or overseas and through the national network of Red Cross chapters, American Red Cross Services to the Armed Forces help servicemen.

"Left-Handed Compliment"

See where a bank in Jackson is putting in left-handed checkbooks. They figure their south-paw depositors deserve just as much consideration as the right handers.

Time was when it was believed that left-handed people had no right to exist at all. If a youngster showed signs of using his left hand, his parents were supposed to break him of the habit—to force him to use his right.

But today most doctors will tell you that changing a child's natural left-handed tendency usually causes more harm than good. Stammering and other nervous disorders often get their start that way with children.

From where I sit, if a man wants to use his left hand—that's his business. It's not such a good idea to make anyone do things our way, just because we think it's right. Personally, I think a mellow glass of beer is the finest beverage on earth. If you happen to prefer a Coke—why, go to it! Only leave me the same freedom of choice, won't you?

- BIG WORK CAPACITY — The HD 5 surprises users everywhere with its performance—combines power and ruggedness with unusual traction, balance and maneuverability.
- BUILT-IN OPERATOR COMFORT AND SIMPLE TO SERVICE — Two features of the HD 5 which mean more work done with less down time—labor and repair costs reduced.
- THE NEW 5 BBE BAKER BULLDOZER is matched in design and performance with the HD 5. Twin engine-mounted hydraulic cylinders provide simple, direct blade control with a minimum of working and wearing parts.
- LIVE-ACTION MOLDBOARD of the new Baker Bulldozer means moving a maximum amount of dirt with a minimum of power.

In the tree planting demonstration held North of Kiln, on the Poplarville Highway, in Hancock County, sponsored by Leo W. Seal, President of the Hancock Bank of Bay St. Louis. In the picture above the two planters used in the demonstration are shown; one is owned by the Illinois Central Railroad and the other by the Forestry Equipment Company of Pritchard, Ala. To the right John G. Guthrie, Forestry Agent of the Illinois Central Railroad is explaining to part of the group the operations of their planter, and to the left, seated on the other planter is Jack L. Hale of the Forestry Equipment Company demonstrating the workings of their planter. Pictured is a part of the large group of interested people who weathered a bad day in order to see this demonstration.

Close March of Dimes Campaign Last Week

Mrs. Theodore Tudury, county chairman and fund director, for the March of Dimes in this county closed the drive last week. Those who have pledged and have not remitted may turn in their contributions now, the director said.

Mrs. Tudury especially commended the Waveland public school which under the leadership of Miss Mary Perkins turned in $25.30—More than 100 percent for its enrollment of 86.

V. P. Anthony, state manager for the work visited here last week in the interest of his annual report from the local chapter. He commented the group on the splendid work done in the county and said he found the most perfectly kept set of books in the state. He said that the treasurer, W. R. Johnson, at the Merchants Bank and Trust Company and the chairman, Mrs. Tudury, are to be commended for the quality of their work.

Observe P. T. A. Founders Day

Founders Day of the Congress of Parents and Teachers was observed Tuesday February 14 at the meeting of the Central School P-T. A. held in the school auditorium.

Mrs. W. W. James brought a short history of its organization in Washington, D. C. on February 17, 1897. Mrs. Alice Birney called a meeting of interested mothers who had the welfare of their children at heart and she made provision for room to hold a meeting saying that if 25 came it would be worth while. 2000 were present and 100 were turned away for lack of space. And thus the first Congress of Mothers was organized which is now known as the Congress of Parents and Teachers.

SENSE OF GRATITUDE

"We celebrated the birthday of P-T. A. with a tribute to our founders not from a sense of duty but with a deep gratitude for the great work they have done in making mothers and fathers more parent conscious," Mrs. James continued. "Each child is important and due equal care and protection."

MRS. McDONALD TALKS

Mrs. McDonald talked on the proposed Adoption Bill as sponsored by the Mississippi Children's Code Commission which has been introduced in the State Legislature and is now pending before the Judiciary Committee of the House of Representatives. Mrs. McDonald talked on more safeguards around the termination of paternal rights.

INCREASED OPPORTUNITIES

Mrs. Whitfield, who talked on "Increased Opportunities for the Exceptional Child," said that the P-T. A. is always concerned with legislation that will put children first.

Mrs. Whitfield listed the way the extra curricular activities, offered for the above the average children, made extra outlets for developing leadership. She stressed the great need in the schools for a program for the lower group and for children who, for many reasons, have never attended school.

GIVES FINANCIAL SIDE

Mr. Ingram spoke principally on the financial side of the Mississippi educational program; he gave the startling information that home owners are contributing one mill to education in the state. They give only one mill toward payment of the teachers' salaries.

He said few people concerned themselves about how the schools are financed and the small financial scale upon which the schools operate.

SOCIAL HOUR

A social hour was held in the Home Making room where the refreshments were prepared and served by the class under the direction of the instructor, Mrs. Juanita Erwin. The Valentine motif was carried out in the refreshments and decorations.

The first grade won the attendance prize with eight parents present.

COUNTY AGENT'S NOTES

Low Prices Don't Scare Efficient Poultrymen

By Howard F. Simmons

POULTRY EFFICIENCY

Seasonal low prices do not scare poultrymen who are efficiently producing top quality broilers or eggs. The drop in egg and broiler prices is an almost certain guarantee of profits later in the year.

Pullet chicks started now should be in 60% production by September 1. Broiler chicks started now will hit the market just right.

The broiler producer who "went in to stay" knows that seasonal low prices will come along. But he knows the price will come back up.

He may lose on one or two houses of broilers, but he knows that over the long haul he can stay in and make money. Such a grower constantly strives for better quality at a lower cost of production.

BUY CHICKS FOR MARKETING: For efficiency in broiler production, buy chicks especially bred to be marketed as broilers. Give them plenty of floor space, which is three-fourths to one square foot per bird. Use deep litter.

Build a gable roof house with ample light and ventilation. Supply fresh water constantly with automatic waterers. Feed right, be careful about sanitation, and pay attention to details.

The egg producer who expects to stay in business plans to have enough birds for efficient operation. He puts a quality egg on the market the year round.

BUY CHICKS BRED FOR LAYING: For high egg production, buy chicks bred for the purpose. Give them adequate housing, feed, water, sanitation and management.

"All pullet" laying flocks are more profitable than "all hen" or "mixed hen and pullet" flocks. A pullet in her first year of production will lay 25 percent more eggs than in her second year.

Get 150 sexed pullets or 300 straight run chicks now for every 100 good pullets to be housed next fall.

KNOW YOUR FERTILIZERS: It pays to know your fertilizers.

Nitrogen, phosphorus and potash, the main plant food elements, can return a net profit of around three dollars for each dollar spent buying them. Profits can be expected by those who buy fertilizer in the proper amounts and kinds, and who use good management.

Soil tests and Experiment Station recommendations show how to make the best use of fertilizers. Send soil samples to State College in plenty of time to use the results in the wise purchase of fertilizer needed.

The county agent can tell you when samples should be taken, and will help you use the results of the testing.

HUNGER SIGNS

Can you recognize hunger signs, that is the way plants look when they aren't getting enough of certain plant food?

Starting with nitrogen, the hungry plant will be pale and yellow, grow slowly and be dwarfed in total growth.

Lacking nitrogen, crops like corn "fire-up," starting on the tips of bottom leaves and then going down the center of the leaf to finally kill it. Drought does not make corn "fire-up" on bottom leaves, but makes the leaves roll up.

If not enough phosphorus, sometimes called acid, is present, crops will come up and get started slowly, be generally dwarfed in total growth and, in crops like corn, turn purple when about 18 inches high.

"FIRES-UP"

When potash is lacking, a crop such as corn "fires-up" on bottom leaves, but differs from nitrogen hunger by the firing going around the edge of the leaf instead of down the center. But both finally kill the leaf in severe cases.

Crops like soybeans and cotton, when lacking potash, "fire-up" first on the tip and then around the edges of the leaf, finally killing in severe cases, this is not confined to lower leaves, and the leaves fall off too early.

County And Home Agents Have Rural Telephone Loan Information Now

State College, Miss.—Rural telephone companies are reminded that County Agricultural and Home Demonstration Agents have information on and application blanks for the Rural Telephone Loan Program as administered through REA, according to Extension Service officials.

AIM OF PROGRAM

The aim of this program is to furnish loans for the improvement and expansion of rural telephone service.

These loans are available to persons now providing or who may plan to provide telephone service in rural areas and to cooperative, non-profit, limited dividend or mutual associations, according to REA officials who administer the program.

CARRIES 2% INTEREST

The rural telephone loans carry 2 percent interest and must be self-liquidating within a maximum of 35 years.

The loans will not be made for refinancing existing indebtedness merely to obtain lower interest rates and longer amortization periods, but will be made only to improve and extend telephone service in rural areas.

Rev. Conrad Kinder Receives Degree

By Senior Students of St. Rose De Lima High School

Rev. Conrad Kinder, S. V. D., director of St. Rose de Lima School, received a degree of Doctor of Philosophy at Little Rock College in Little Rock, Arkansas. He had received his Master of Arts degree at the same college in 1932.

Mr. Charles Napoleon Williams of 104 Third street died last Wednesday morning, February 15, after an illness of six and a half months. He was seventy-three years old. The deceased was a faithful member of the Knights of Peter Claver and of the Holy Name Societies; both societies were represented at the funeral which took place Friday afternoon at three o'clock. Rev. Conrad A. Kinder performed the funeral rites; interment was in Cedar Rest cemetery. Mr. Williams is survived by four sons, Messrs. Elbert C. Williams and Earl W. Williams of New Orleans, and Messrs. Raymond L. Williams and Victor H. Williams of Bay St. Louis; three daughters, Mesdames Maud M. Blackstone of California, Louise Daniels of New Orleans, Sarah W. Huff of Bay St. Louis; two brothers Victor Williams of Bay St. Louis and James Williams of Handsboro, Mississippi; thirty-eight grandchildren, and ten great grandchildren. His wife, the late Viola Williams, preceded him in death twenty-one years ago.

Last Saturday night the very Reverend Aloysius Kappenberg, S. V. D., superior general of the Society of the Divine Word, his secretary, Rev. Adolph Streib, S. V. D., and the Very Reverend William Bauer, S. V. D., provincial of the Southern province, returned to St. Augustine's Seminary after having visited the houses of the society in the Southern province. The superior general and his secretary will leave this week end for the Eastern province.

In April they will sail for Rome, the residence of the generalate.

At St. Augustine's Seminary the organ in the Chapel was returned to have it in perfect shape for Easter.

Washington's Birthday was celebrated at St. Augustine's for the entire community.

Mrs. John James and her two children have joined Sgt. James in Alaska.

Mrs. Margaret Major and her children have moved to Cheyenne Wyoming.

Mr. August Haeur of Xavier University in New Orleans, has joined the Army Air Corps.

Mr. Lionel Bradley was operated on for appendicitis. He is getting along nicely.

The seventh and eighth grades of St. Rose de Lima School sponsored a masquerade party last Sunday, February 19. Everyone had an enjoyable time.

The Hundred Men Debating Society sponsored a dance at the Hundred Men Pavilion Tuesday, February 21.

The senior and junior boys basketball teams of St. Rose de Lima school played the boys of St. Augustine's Seminary last Sunday afternoon. Both games were overwhelming victories for the seminary.

Last Sunday afternoon the St. Rose girls played the senior and junior C. Y. O. teams of Pass Christian in Pass Christian. Both games were tied. The score for the seniors was 16-16 and for the juniors 18-18.

U. S. One-Third Forest Land

ONE THIRD of the United States consists of forest lands. Much of these 620,000,000 acres of tree-producing land is permanently reserved in national parks and other preserves. But most of it, some 461,000,000 acres, are our commercial forests, which grow the forest crops from which come our lumber, pulp and paper, rayon, much of our fuel and thousands of other products.

Most of our commercial forests are not wilderness areas. They are small woodlands, on farms and in other small tracts. The proper management of woodlands, large or small, their protection from fire, insects and disease are the means we must adopt to keep them producing crops of timber for today, and for tomorrow, according to the American Forest Products Industries.

Discuss Reorganization Of Sea Scouts At Meet

Gerald Villars, Field Executive of the New Orleans Area of Boy Scouts, was a guest of the Bay St. Louis Rotary Club Wednesday in the interest of reorganizing the Sea Scouts.

You Have A Vital Stake In Telephone Bargaining:

It's YOUR money that pays telephone wages

SOUTHERN BELL WAGES and WORKING CONDITIONS ALREADY

ARE AMONG THE BEST—ANY INCREASE IN WAGES WOULD HAVE

TO BE PAID BY TELEPHONE CUSTOMERS — THERE IS NO

OTHER WAY WAGE INCREASES CAN BE PAID

You have a vital stake in telephone wage negotiations, for it's the money you pay in to us that we pay out in telephone wages.

Telephone employees are well paid. Their wages compare favorably with the wages paid by other concerns in the community for work requiring similar skills.

Telephone wage rates have been increased 117% since 1939, compared with an increase of less than 70% in the cost of living.

But wages are not the whole story. Telephone employees have the advantage of steady work, with no seasonal layoffs. They get vacations with pay, up to three weeks, plus six holidays a year. In addition, they enjoy the real security provided by one of the best pension and benefit plans in any industry. Among other things, it provides:

- * A pension with a minimum of $100 a month, including Social Security, at age 65, and liberal provisions for earlier retirement.
- * Sickness and accident benefits, up to a full year's pay, depending on length of service.
- * Death benefits, up to one full year's wage, depending on length of service.

For all of these benefits, the employee pays nothing — the Company pays all

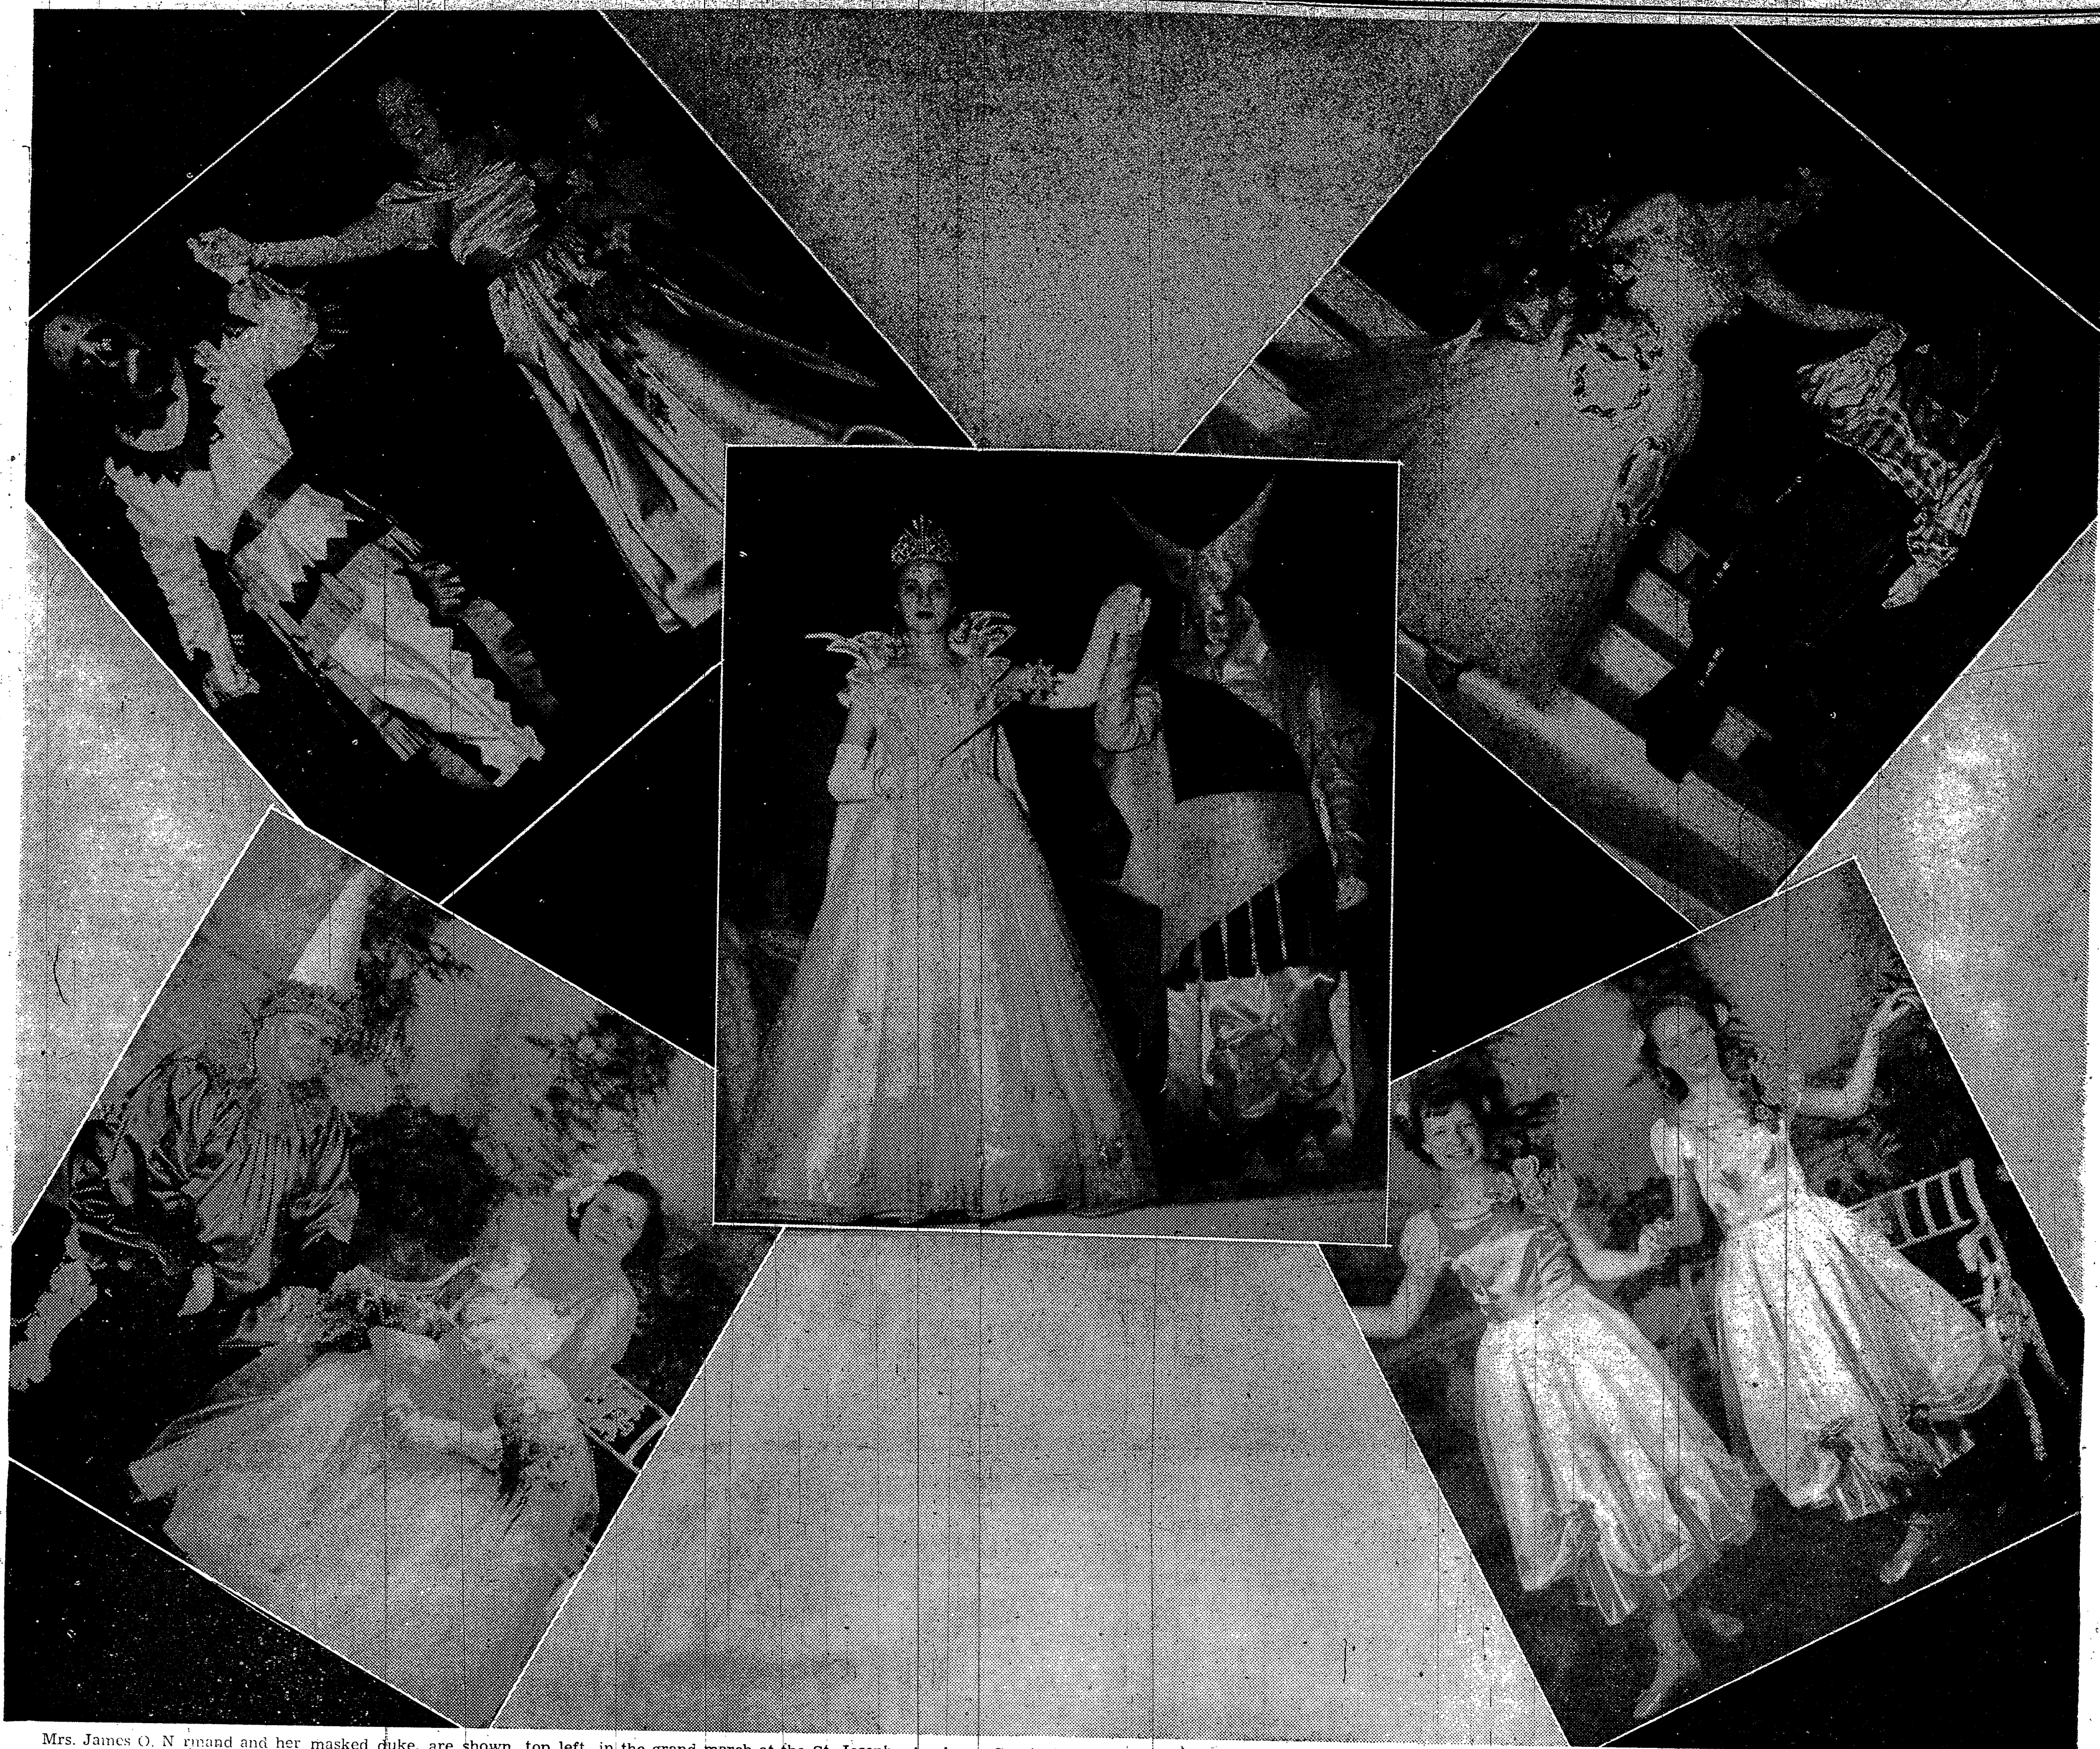

Any way you look it it—wages, working conditions, pensions and benefits—telephone employees are doing all right. And that's the way we think it should be. It takes all these things to get and keep good people.

The telephone business is regulated in a way that Unions and most other businesses are not. Federal and State Commissioners determine the rates we charge for service. Any increases in telephone WAGES would force us to ask for an increase in telephone RATES.

What About The Contract?

Southern Bell and the CWA-CIO are engaged in collective bargaining on wages at the request of the Union. We earnestly hope that a settlement can be reached that will be fair to the employees, to telephone users and to the company. Meanwhile, the public has every right to expect uninterrupted service under the present contract between the Company and the Union, which provides that, quoting the contract itself, "UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCES MAY IT (The Contract) BE TERMINATED EARLIER THAN JUNE 5, 1950."

SOUTHERN BELL TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH CO.

Mrs. James O. N. Girard and her masked duke, are shown, top left, in the grand march at the St. Joseph Academy Carnival Ball held Friday, February 17. Do you know the pirate with Mrs. Robert L. Camors, top right, as they descend the stairs of the stage at the beginning of the ball? In the center are their royal highnesses, Miss Mary diBenedetto and Dr. John L. Griffin. In the lower left hand corner Mrs. Alden Mauffray and Dr. Emmett Irwin are snapped after the dukes removed their masks when the ball was over; and in the lower right corner, Kathy Gilbert and Mikiel Barry curtsy to their majesties after they complete the entertainment for the court.

WINTER - SPRING LEGION MEMBERSHIP DRIVE ON

Tying in local effort with the new state-wide membership campaign, Commander Fred E. Fayard, Sr., of the Clement R. Bontemps Post No. 139, of The American Legion here, today said that the winter-spring membership drive has officially begun in Bay St. Louis and Hancock County.

SEEKING MEMBERS

The local Legionnaires, now boasting a Post membership of 180, are seeking to receive into membership all honorably discharged veterans of World War II. Legion membership, added the Commander, carries not only the social and personal prestige not elsewhere obtainable, but also furnishes an incomparable opportunity for service.

Center of focus of the Legion's streamlined 1950 program is the disabled veteran and his rehabilitation. Local Post officials point with pride to beneficial legislation which was obtained during the 1949 Legion year. The impressive record stood at more than 100 bills enacted by the 81st Congress.

OTHERS RECEIVE EMPHASIS

Receiving great emphasis are other American Legion programs which are primarily in the field of Americanism, and Community Service. Entry into these fields will permit local staging of patriotic programs and afford the community the benefit of a local service program aimed at the betterment of the general welfare.

Local Legionnaires are planning to be active in the new membership campaign, promising to call personally on as many veteran non-members as possible.

Red Cross safety service helps conserve human life by giving people a knowledge of the causes and consequences of accidents, and by training them in skills and correct procedures for effective emergency aid to accident victims.

Legion Auxiliary Meets At Home of Mrs. E. Ling

The February meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary was held at the home of Mrs. Eugene Ling. Guests at the meeting were Mrs. J. S. Pittman, president of the seven-unit unit; Mrs. J. P. Milton, Mrs. Joseph Cole and Mrs. R. B. Mahaffey, all of the Pascagoula American Legion Auxiliary Unit.

AMERICANISM

A message on Americanism, was given by Mrs. Frank Nelson.

The auxiliary is planning a benefit Bingo game during the Red Cross Fund Drive in March.

COMPLIMENTS AUXILIARY

Mrs. Pittman complimented the auxiliary on being the first unit in the district to reach its membership quota.

The auxiliary took the song "America" as the subject for the float it entered in the local Carnival parade.

IRENE FRICKE - E. CUEVAS MARRIED HERE SUNDAY

Miss Irene Fricke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Fricke of Highway 90, and Mr. Ernest Cuevas, son of Mrs. Louise Cuevas of this city were married Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock at Christ Episcopal church; Rev. C. R. Johnson, officiated.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a grey gabardine suit with a navy blue hat and shoes. Her blouse, purse and gloves were of a lighter shade of blue. Her shoulder corsage was of pink rosebuds.

She had as her maid of honor her sister, Miss Shirley Fricke, who wore a green suit with brown accessories and hat. Her corsage was of pink roses.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. Cuevas had as his best man Mr. Bob Moore, Bay St. Louis.

The bride is a graduate of Bay High, holds a clerical position with the Gordon Jewelry Company in New Orleans.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Bay High, and is with the Gulf Service Station.

Appoint Committeemen For Red Cross Drive

Chairmen for the Community Red Cross Drive were appointed by Don McCulloch, chairman of the American Red Cross 1950 Campaign Fund Drive, this week.

Mrs. Eunice Casanova will head activities in Logtown; Mrs. Yarbrough will be in charge in Pearlington; Mrs. Cora Miller is the community drive chairman in Gainesville; and Mrs. Otho Rester will conduct the campaign in Leetown.

Ethel Christmas, colored, will direct a campaign in Logtown.

Other committeemen for this section will be contacted soon, Mr. McCulloch added.

The volunteers will begin, on March 1, the task of raising the quota, $4,122, set for Hancock County for 1950. This is just a part of the $67,000,000 to be raised for the National Red Cross fund.

GENERAL MARSHALL SPEAKS
In announcing the goal for the 1950 campaign, March 1-31, General Geo. C. Marshall, new Red Cross president, pointed out that the estimated cost of the Red Cross program for the 1950-51 fiscal year actually totals $19,000,000. Rigid economies and the application of $12,000,000 from almost depleted surpluses have enabled the organization to hold its request down to $67,000,000, General Marshall said. Last year the Red Cross raised $68,296,000 to meet an $85,000,000 budget. The difference was met through application of surplus funds.

Greek L. Rice Dies In Jackson Monday

Greek L. Rice, Attorney General of the State of Mississippi died at the home of his sister, Mrs. Swep Taylor of Jackson, February 21.

Funeral services were held Thursday in Jackson, and the burial took place in Charleston, Miss. The State Legislature recessed for the services.

ILL FOR SOME TIME
Rice had been ill for some time and had remained away from his office the day of his death.

The Attorney General, who was in his thirtieth year of public service, was 63 years old. His present term expires in 1952, and the Governor must name a successor to serve until then.

UNDEFEATED
Rice had held his present office for 18 years. He was one of the few politicians who had the distinction of never being defeated in a campaign for public office, and after his election in 1931 he was unopposed.

He served in the Mississippi house of representatives in 1920 and 1921; resigned this post to become judge of the 17th judicial circuit with his headquarters at Charleston, which post he held until he became Attorney General.

BORN MAY 18, 1886
The deceased, a native of Casilla, Miss., was born May 18, 1886. He was graduated from Mississippi College in 1908, and received his law degree from Cumberland College, Tenn., in 1911.

Survivors include three brothers, Dr. J. C. Rice, Natchez; Sheriff J. E. Rice of Charleston, Miss.; and Dr. T. C. Rice of Franklin, Tenn.; two sisters, Mrs. Swen Taylor, Sr., Jackson; and Mrs. A. B. Kreger, Roanoke, Va.; his stepmother, Mrs. Lucy Rice of Charleston and a sister-in-law, Mrs. Ned Rice, Sr., of Charleston.

TO PRESENT CARNIVAL ALBUM
All Kings and Queens of former St. Joseph Academy Carnival balls are invited to be present at St. Joseph Academy Tuesday, February 28 at 8 p. m. when the photograph album will be presented to Mother Marie Blanche, Mrs. L. S. Elliott, chairman of the committee, announced.

WILL NOT AFFECT SERVICES
"Lower operating budgets will not affect the essential services of the Red Cross," General Marshall said. "In fact some of them will be increased by wider use of trained volunteers. It is extremely important to millions of Americans that the Red Cross continue its high standard of service."
Start saving now to increase the regular contribution to this worthy cause, the American Red Cross.

Mr. And Mrs. R. Blaize Sr. Observe 50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Blaize, Sr. were honored, on the occasion, of their Golden Wedding anniversary, at a reception Tuesday, February 21, given by their seven children Mrs. A. G. Favre, Mrs. Leone Monti, Ralph Blaize, Jr., Edmond Blaize, Osmond Blaize, Miss Rosemary Blaize and Leslie E. Blaize.

The home was decorated throughout the reception rooms, with yellow acacia, yellow roses yellow tulips and calendulas.

The table, covered with a hand-made lace cloth, was centered with a cake in the shape of a "50", iced in white and gold; on either side of the cake were crystal candlesticks with yellow candles.

Mrs. Blaize, who was wearing a black dress with an orchid corsage, was assisted in receiving by her daughters, daughters-in-law and granddaughters.

MARRIED IN THE BAY
Mr. and Mrs. Blaize were married February 21, 1900 at the Church of Our Lady of the Gulf by Rev. Father Blanc. Mrs. Blaize's sister, Mrs. Marie Saucier was maid of honor. Fred dePaoli was best man.

Mrs. Blaize, the daughter of the late Adele Guerry and Edmond Neale, is a native of Bay St. Louis; Mr. Blaize, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Blaize, is also a native Bay St. Louisian.

Mr. Blaize retired from active work several years ago; at the time, he was employed by Higgins, Inc. For a number of years he worked with Dunbar Dukate Co., Pass Christian and Violet, La.

LIVED HERE 36 YEARS
After their marriage, the couple resided in Flomington, Ala., where Mr. Blaize was employed; they then moved to Louisiana. They have lived here in Bay St. Louis for thirty-six years.

They have twenty-one grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Larry Mauffray, who is attending Bernard college in Alabama, spent the Carnival holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alden Mauffray.

INDIVIDUAL WINNERS

The prize for the best adult street maskers was won by Mrs. Carmelita Saucier dressed as a witch; for the best juvenile the award went to Prudence Arnold, as Mary Had A Little Lamb and Dale Russell as "An Old Fashioned Girl."

OTHER FLOATS

The floats were worked out to fit the title and among those which deserve special mention were the "Ten Little Indians" which was planned and carried out by the pupils of the Webb School. They used spaghetti and macaroni, dyed it and made heads and other ornaments to throw from the float; "Winter Wonderland" entered by the fourth and fifth grades of Bay High; "Cruising Down the River" entered by the Bay High's sixth grade; "Alexander's Rag Time Band" entered by seventh grade of Bay High; extra school students entered by Mr. and Mrs. Bill Witter on "Dixie"; "The Old Dutch Mill" entered by Taylor School; "Oh, You Beautiful Doll," St. Joseph Academy; "Lazy Bones" entered by St. Stanislaus Parochial school; "Old Gray Mare Ain't What She Used to Be" entered by Nolan Ladner; "Dark Town Strutters Ball" entered by Favre-Vassalli; "Old McDonald Had A Farm" entered by W. A. McDonald & Sons; "Easter Parade" the Womans Civic Organization entry; "Star Dust" Little Theatre entry; "Old Master Painter" entered by the Blue Bottle Studio; "America, American Legion Auxiliary entry; "Strawberry Blonde," entered by Gay 90 club; "Laugh, Clown, Laugh" entered by Bobby Anne Bakery; "Happy Birthday" entered by Bay Mercantile Co., and "Showboat," St. Stanislaus College's entry.

Music for the court was furnished by the Bay High Orchestra.

The P-T. A. also sponsored a block dance for maskers at 11:30 a. m. on Second Street near the Bob Bivens home. Prizes were awarded to Dian Presnel, aged 3, first prize, and Juanita Meyers, aged 12, second place.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert D. Biehl, Jr., and their children, Owen, Helen, Margaret and Albert III, of Jackson, Missouri, spent the Carnival season with Mr. and Mrs. Albert Biehl, Sr., of New Orleans and Bay St. Louis.

Seventeen Injured In Derailment Of Pan-American

Twelve cars of the Louisville and Nashville's Pan American were derailed about 7 a. m. Saturday, February 18, at White Harbor. Seventeen passengers were injured.

JACKKNIFE ACROSS ROAD
Two of the derailed cars left the right of way, and they partially across one of the roads parallel to the tracks.

Railroad officials said the derailment was caused by what appeared to be a broken rail.

Mrs. T. D. Powell of Jasper, Texas was the only passenger that was seriously injured; she was hospitalized with bad cuts; the other injured were treated at Gulfport Memorial hospital and most of them were released from there that day.

PASSENGERS HEADED FOR CARNIVAL

The train, headed for New Orleans, was carrying a number of persons who were on their way to attend Mardi Gras day festivities.

The diesel engines of the Pan-American, a baggage car and the first pullman coach did not leave the rails. The sixth and seventh cars were the cars which left the right of way.

The derailment tied up railroad traffic until 9:15 Saturday night.

Members of the train crew were B. J. Bush, engineer; F. H. Masden, fireman; and E. E. Burnett, conductor, all of Mobile.

POSTPONE BOXING MATCH

The boxing match scheduled for Monday night between Bay High and St. Stanislaus has been postponed indefinitely.

PRISONER OF WAR BENEFIT FORMS ARE AT RED CROSS

Ex-prisoner of war benefits and survivors of deceased prisoners of War application form have been received by the Hancock County

Chapter of the American Red Cross, Mrs. E. M. Weston, executive secretary, announced. The Red Cross will assist in filling the forms; anyone wishing help can go to the Red Cross office in the Courthouse.

HOW MUCH IS ONE RESCUE WORTH?

A tiny hand above the water. Then slowly, slowly it sinks. But there is time—still time—if only someone is near, someone who knows what to do. A twelve-year-old boy, a woman, an old man—anyone, if only he knows.

And the wonderful thing is that there are millions who do know what to do and how to do it. Last year alone, you—through your Red Cross—made it possible to train more than a half a million people in water safety. Another 56,600 were authorized as instructors in water safety and first aid. It is estimated that 18,000,000 have had training in first aid and water safety through your Red Cross.

Many of these people are able to save human life—priceless human life. How much is this ability worth? It's hard to say—unless it is someone you love who has been rescued.

Your contributions to your Red Cross can help carry on this training program, help take it to new areas that need it. Give now—it may save a life sooner than you think.

You, too, can help through Your
RED CROSS

Give Now!
